Two UMM students are among all-U recipients of Sullivan scholarships to study abroad

Summary:

(May 12, 2005)-Two University of Minnesota, Morris students are among six University wide to receive the 2005-06 Katherine Sullivan Scholarships. The scholarships provide opportunities for university seniors to enrich their academic experience with a fifth year of undergraduate study in another country. The scholarship will cover all or a portion of in-country educational expenses (tuition, fees, books and research costs), room and board and round-trip transportation between the Twin Cities and the study site.

The six recipients are:

Sara Kloek of Stillwater, Minn., is a political science and Spanish major at the Morris campus. She will study in Ecuador in fall 2005.

Kathryn Schwaderer of Aitkin, Minn., is a biology major at Morris. She will study in Sweden in the 2005 fall semester.

Christopher Gregory of Manhattan, Kan., is majoring in Asian languages and literatures and theatre in the College of Liberal Arts (CLA) Honors Program at the Twin Cities campus. He will study in Japan in the 2005-06 academic year.

Oana Lungu, of New Brighton, Minn., is a biochemistry major in the College of Biological Sciences' Honors Program on the Twin Cities campus. He will study in Spain in the 2005-06 academic year.

Joseph Sand of Austin, Minn., is a studio art major in School of Fine Arts on the Duluth campus. He will study in the United Kingdom in the 2005-06 academic year.

Rebecca Vanasek of New Prague, Minn., is an independent studies major in the CLA Honors Program. She will study in South Africa for the 2005-06 academic year.

Through personal and academic discovery, the University of Minnesota, Morris provides opportunities for students to grow intellectually, engage in community, experience environmental stewardship and celebrate diversity.
